

ANGELINE LOW LU-YEN

LAWYER | CONSULTANT | TRAINER

profile

Are your top employees leaving you? Are workplace challenges keeping you awake at night? Bad hires can drain morale, reduce productivity, and even push your best talent to leave.

If you're ready for a change but unsure where to start, Angeline Low can help. Building on her early career in a boutique Industrial Relations legal firm and her ongoing role in the Industrial and Employment Law Committee of the Malaysian Bar, Angeline has dedicated herself to helping employers navigate complex employee challenges. She has successfully minimized legal risks, resolved challenging workplace issues, and cultivated thriving workplace culture.

Passionate about transformation, Angeline works to shift mindsets – both individual and corporate. She will identify your pain points and craft tailored solutions to help you overcome obstacles, retain your best talent, and build a positive, productive work environment.

Angeline is not your typical lawyer. Having managed a drug rehabilitation home, she understands the complexities of working with individuals society often labels as difficult. Her motto, Practical Solutions With Integrity, embodies her commitment to providing impactful and effective results.

Whether you're seeking guidance, tools to manage challenging employees, strategies to retain top talent or methods to cultivate a positive work culture, Angeline is here to help. As a dynamic speaker and trusted advisor, she's ready to share her legal knowledge and insights to help your business flourish.
